Breena's story continues in the second installment by Kailin Gow. Forever Frost is magical and intriguing. May Contain Spoilers Breena is now back in the summer court with the Queen, waiting for the moment when she can see Kian once again, stricken with the grief of Logan's death and the hopes of seeing her mother again. Breena knows she can't stay in Faeryland and it upsets her, she has fallen for it and everything around her.

Forever Frost (Frost, #2) by Kailin Gow - Goodreads

(3.5 stars) I am delighted to say that Kailin Gow has stepped up her game and FOREVER FROST is a vast improvement over its predecessor, BITTER FROST. The slower stride to this second book, was of great service to this promising tale. The new pacing to the story makes for a more comfortable read and a more memorable one as well.

Forever Frost (Frost #2)(12) Kailin Gow. I could see the tears in my mother's eyes. "Thank you," I said. My voice was trembling. I wasn't sure how to feel yet. I felt that I was supposed to run into his arms, to hold him tightly and tell him that I was so glad to meet my father at last - but truth be told, I wasn't. It didn't move me.
