An issue paper should include an introduction, a body (or story), and a conclusion. One might choose to divide the paper into more sections but these are the minimum requirements. However it is prudent to caution that with short essay papers (typically less than 10 pages) it is often best to limit the number of sections in the paper.

Guidelines for Writing Issue Papers

Sometimes there will not be a Judicial Council form for what you need to do. In that case, you will need to draft or create your own legal document, in the right format and following the court's rules. The California Rules of Court, starting with rule 2.100, tell you what is required for any documents you file with the court.
